CureFest Tribute Beads • What Color Do You Wear?

Gold is for a child who is in treatment or currently has cancer.

Silver is for a child who has finished treatment and is cancer-free or in remission.

White represents a child who has passed away and is worn by a parent, a sibling or extended family.

Blue is for a parent of any child diagnosed with cancer: a fighter, a survivor or a child who has passed away.

Burgundy is for a sibling of a fighter, survivor or a child who has passed away.

Green is for extended family (grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins or anyone related by blood or marriage)

Purple is for all childhood cancer advocates.
Arms Wide Open Childhood Cancer Foundation is committed to funding pediatric cancer research, supporting families who are suffering hardship due to their child’s cancer diagnosis both financially and emotionally, educating the general public, raising awareness globally and uniting the childhood cancer community.

Moreover, Arms Wide Open is helping transform the childhood cancer landscape through their many initiatives, such as their Emmy-Award winning documentaries and awareness campaign, The Truth 365, which gives all children with cancer a voice, and by hosting, CureFest, an annual event in Washington, DC, that brings foundations and advocates together to speak as one voice on behalf of all children fighting cancer.

Program inspired by the vision of Jace Ward
Children with cancer are at the heart of everything we do.

Day One is a biopharmaceutical company that believes that when it comes to pediatric cancer, we can do better. We put kids first. We uniquely understand and purposefully cater to their needs.

Day One is proud to support CureFest for Childhood Cancer.
WE BELIEVE IN THE POWERS OF CREATIVITY, FRIENDSHIP, AND LAUGHTER AS TOOLS FOR HEALING.

A Moment of Magic is a national 501(c)(3) non-profit organization with a mission to improve the quality of life of vulnerable and underserved children and inspire them to be brave, strong, fearless as they face their battle.

We believe in the powers of creativity, friendship, and laughter as tools for healing. We have over 50 chapters nationwide partnering with more than 550 hospitals and non-profit organizations. We provide all of our services completely free of charge to families in need.

Since 2014, we have served more than 110,000 children.

FOR CHILDREN BATTLING CANCER SMALL MOMENTS CAN MAKE A BIG IMPACT

We understand the social and emotional challenges children and families experience when dealing with a medical illness. By providing programs that focus on music, literature, arts and crafts, and play as tools for expression and creating community, we are able to help lift the psychological burden many medically underserved children and families experience.

Our services include:

- Character Visits (In-Person and Virtual)
- Care packages
- Browsy Blog Activity Kits
- Story Time Experiences
- Small group experiences
- Large group experiences
- Individual Video Requests
- Memorial Moments
- A Moment of Magic Unlimited, our very own streaming service
